

Taught Programme Scholarships and Awards

ISE Trust Scholarships

The Irish School of Ecumenics Trust has instituted a postgraduate scholarship in each M. Phil. programme. One scholarship will be awarded to an exceptionally well-qualified candidate in each of the three taught M. Phil. programmes: International Peace Studies, Inter Cultural Theology and Interreligious Studies, and Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation.

VALUE: €3800 for Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation; €3800 for Inter Cultural Theology and Interreligious Studies; €6500 for International Peace Studies. Students should note that these Scholarships are only likely to cover part of the total cost for fees and living expenses and applicants are therefore encouraged to explore additional sources of funding as well.

ELIGIBILITY: Open to all full time applicants on each of the three taught M. Phil. programmes. The Scholarship in International Peace Studies is normally awarded to an international student from the Global South.

The Boris Trajkovski Scholarship

Instituted by The Irish School of Ecumenics Trust, the Boris Trajkovski Scholarship will be awarded annually to a student from the Balkans region to undertake a taught Master's programme in International Peace Studies, Inter Cultural Theology and Interreligious Studies, or Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation. The scholarship is made possible through the generosity of the Methodist Church in Britain, in the spirit of ecumenical partnership. This scholarship is open to Christians of all denominations who can demonstrate a commitment to the vision and mission of the Methodist Church Fund for World Mission, (the promoter of the scholarship). It is intended to support the ongoing work of reconciliation in the region by providing the opportunity for individuals who have been involved in ecumenical, inter-faith, reconciliation or peace work to undertake a 1-year taught masters degree in the Irish School of Ecumenics.

VALUE: €30,000, from which university fees and a stipend will be paid.

ELIGIBILITY: Open to full time M. Phil. applicants on any of the ISE's taught M. Phil. programmes from the following qualifying countries: Macedonia, Bosnia and Herzegovia, Croatia (Eastern), Serbia, Montenegro, Albania, Bulgaria.

APPLICATION: Please contact the Executive Officer of the programme you wish to apply for – see above.

DEADLINE: 16 April 2010.

Columbanus Scholarship

The Columbanus Scholarship is awarded to an exceptionally well qualified candidate on the M. Phil. in Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation taught at our Belfast school, and is made possible by the generosity of the Columbanus Community Trust Fund. Columbanus, a peace building community based for many years at 683 Antrim Road, was established by the founder of the Irish School of Ecumenics, Father Michael Hurley SJ. The availability of this scholarship is reviewed annually. Students should note that this Scholarship is only likely to cover part of the total cost for fees and living expenses and applicants are therefore encouraged to explore additional sources of funding as well

ELIGIBILITY: Open to full time applicants on the M. Phil. in Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation.

APPLICATION: The Executive Officer reconsec@tcd.ie, +44 (0)28 9077 0087.

CLOSING DATE: 30 June 2010
